- o Globalization will be defining theme for Private Equity industry in the coming years;
- o World's best markets have similar characteristics – stable regulatory environments, liberal policies toward private enterprises, well-funded financial systems;
- o Private Equity firms will no longer be able to rely on arbitrage or financial engineering to generate returns. Value creation is a key. Successful firms will be those, who can see value-creating opportunities prior to the transaction and deliver them afterwards.

Changing sources of return

- Future development?
- PE investors role?

Adding value is a key

Value from Growth

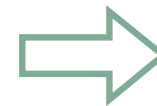

- >25% organic sales growth annually
- Maintain or improve EBIT margin
- M&A opportunities can bolster growth further

Value from Change

- Unlock value from change in business organization
- Lead transformation work:
 - Financial management
 - Decision-making process
 - Legal structure
 - Human Resources

Carrotti:
"No, Hoskins, you're not going to do it just because I'm telling you to do it. You're going to do it because you believe in it."

If PE continues to offer superior governance, we believe it could rival the public market system in size
